

Wipe-out

Write all of the answer choices on the board. Divide the students into two teams. Flip a coin to see which team will go first. Show the question. The students walk briskly to the board and erase the answer. The students will dance to the music on the way back to their seats. The eraser is handed to the person on the opposing team.

